

Agreed report

Board of Management North Connaught College

2 December 2015

- The Board reviewed recent events at the college including graduation, wellness week “College Awareness” week, visits to Higher Education colleges and the Board of Management Training session held recently.
- Condolences were expressed to Gabrielle McSharry by the Board after the death of her sister
- Future plans were discussed including hosting a marketing graduate from Sligo IT next year as well as the publication of a small booklet of past students’ stories.
- A Christmas service with “living crib” would be held on 16 December.
- NCC is linking with other parts of the MSLETB to plan Further education and Training courses for next year and plans were outlined
- Admissions, Internet and Data Protection Policies were reviewed and adopted
- The board discussed accommodation and financial matters and inspected the building